Biography

Christopher C. Johnson is a Senior Associate. He defends national and local employers in litigation and administrative proceedings against any claim arising from the employment relationship. Chris also advises clients in the prevention of litigation with a focus on the preparation and revision of his clients' policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the ever-changing legal requirements facing today's employers. Chris received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Florida. He majored in Information Systems and Operations Management with an emphasis on using technology to make corporations' data systems and operations more efficient and effective. In 2013, Chris received his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. During his time in law school, Chris worked as a judicial extern for the Honorable Don F. Briggs and the Honorable T. Michael Johnson in the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Florida. Chris currently serves on the Executive Council of the Solo & Small Firm Section of The Florida Bar. Chris also co-chairs the Long-Range Planning Committee of the Hillsborough County Bar Association Young Lawyer's Division and is a member of the Hillsborough County Bar Association Young Lawyer's Division Law-Related Education & Law Week Committee assisting in the planning, organizing, and operation of the annual Judge Robert Simms High School Mock Trial Competition. Outside of the law, Chris volunteers on the Wedges for Wishes committee for Make-A-Wish of Southern Florida and is an active Professional Partner for the Moffitt Cancer Center. Chris grew up in Leesburg, Florida.
